COMPLAINTS FROM PRESS WORKERS

*614. [50] Sri. M. I. Paul: Will the Government be pleased to state.—

Whether the Government have received complaints from the workers of the Government Press of the Cochin District; if so, when and in respect of what matters and what action has been taken on these complaints?

Chief Minister (Sri. C. Kesavan):

In November 1949 complaints in regard to change of working hours, enhancement of pay, revision of schedules for valuation, certain concessions in the payment of overtime allowance, bonus, grant of leave, pension, promotion, transfer between the Ernakulam and Trivandrum Presses, appointment of additional workers and the opening of a centre at Ernakulam for holding technical examinations in Printing, have been received from the workers of the Government Press at Ernakulam. Government have passed orders that the above questions will be considered after the integration of the services of the two Government Presses is finalised and the suggestions of the expert from the Associated Printers, Madras, who visited the Government Presses recently are received. The integration of the services of the two Presses has not yet been finalised. The suggestions of the expert have been received and are now being examined. Sanction has been since given for the creation of a Centre at Ernakulam for technical examinations in Printing.
